JOB FAMILY AND FUNCTION

Job Family:	Student Resources
Job Function:	Admissions & Recruitment

JOB SUMMARY

The Assistant Director, Campus Visit & Events serves as a key manager in the Office of Undergraduate Admissions, overseeing all large-scale recruitment and yield events—both on-campus and off-campus. This position plays a pivotal role in enhancing prospective student engagement by executing exceptional events that reflect Auburn's values, reputation, and academic strengths. The Assistant Director also contributes to application review and territory management, ensuring that outreach and admissions processes remain integrated and strategic.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Leads planning, coordination, and execution of all large-scale on-campus and off-campus recruitment and yield events (e.g., War Eagle Days, Your Town events, Admitted Student events), ensuring alignment with enrollment goals and a high-quality experience for prospective students and families.
- Provides full supervisory oversight for professional staff including the Campus Events Coordinator and Campus Tour Coordinator, ensuring effective staff development, performance evaluation, and workflow management.
- Assesses event effectiveness through surveys and engagement data, makes strategic recommendations for improvement, and oversees continuous innovation of recruitment programming.
- Manages the budgets associated with recruitment events and ensures compliance with university procurement and financial procedures.
- Manages an assigned recruitment territory, including high school visits, fairs, counselor relations, and community outreach. Represents Auburn at both in-state and out-of-state recruitment events.
- Reviews undergraduate admissions applications for an assigned territory, making admissions decisions and participating in committee-based review and evaluation processes.
- Develops and strengthens relationships with internal and external stakeholders, including academic departments, alumni, school counselors, and community-based organizations, to broaden Auburn's recruitment reach.
- Leads or contributes to special projects and initiatives related to enrollment, such as communication planning, scholarship coordination, or data reporting.

The responsibilities listed above show the typical duties for jobs in this classification. Actual tasks may differ depending on the department's needs. Other similar duties may be assigned with discretion of the supervisor. Not every duty will apply to every position, and the amount of time spent on each task can change based on department needs.
