JOB SUMMARY

The Director of Administrative Assessment provides strategic vision for all aspects of administrative assessment and continuous improvement efforts across all of the institution's administrative units. This position serves as an expert in assessment, improvement, and accreditation, through service on numerous committees, and through the facilitation of professional development with faculty, staff, and administrators on campus.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Develops and manages comprehensive strategies to build a shared understanding of assessment for non-academic administrative units as an educationally and institutionally purposeful activity including showcasing units with demonstrated excellence, advising units on the development of goals, outcomes, and measures, and overseeing the implementation of an annual assessment process focused on continuous improvement. Co-leads the University's accreditation efforts for areas pertaining to Administrative Effectiveness (SACSCOC Standard 7.3) and reports institutional assessment findings to upper administration. Advises leadership, in collaboration with Administrative Effectiveness, on matters related to non-academic administrative unit assessment, in alignment with the University's strategic plan and mission.
- Leads and plans professional development events and trainings for employees to enhance the quality of assessment at the University, which includes developing and facilitating workshops, designing resources, and facilitating focus groups. This also includes refining an infrastructure for report intake and maintenance, administering assessment training, and evaluating the quality of assessment described in assessment reports.
- Supports administrative unit accreditation efforts and provides evidence of continuous improvement during accreditation visits. Represents the Associate Vice President and Executive Director for Administrative Effectiveness by overseeing and facilitating accreditation processes for the University's nonacademic departments, communicating with internal and external stakeholders.
- Sets the vision for pioneering an innovative approach to assessment through the lens of continuous improvement; designs and administers efforts to enhance an ever developing culture of excellence.
- Provides strategic leadership for Administrative Assessment that supports the mission of the Executive Director, Administrative Effectiveness to promote and enhance the efficiency, effectiveness, and quality of administrative and non-academic assessment at the University.
- Provides analysis and will supervise a team that provides data analytic support to nonacademic and administrative units in efforts to seek continuous improvement and operational excellence. Leads and assists with managing staff and leading recruitment of positions including reviewing resumes, participating in interviews, and conducting performance review evaluations, onboarding, and staff development training.
- Represents Administrative Effectiveness, Business and Administration, and the University by providing assessment expertise through service to relevant university committees and when making external contributions to the field.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Supports assessment efforts for special projects.
- Leads coordination of operational activities including assessment, reporting, and feedback processes that support broad institutional outcomes to include data collection, consultation and project request management, assessment software selection/implementation, dashboarding efforts, and mechanisms for conveying information to audiences.
- Assists Associate Vice President and Executive Director with supporting strategic planning efforts and other initiatives.
