FLSA status: Exempt
Job Family: No Family
Grade VT08 $42,000 - $67,200

The Veterinary Social Worker provides emotional support to clients (animal owners) and staff, short-term interventions, and psychoeducational programs. Serves as a liaison between clients and the veterinary care team to facilitate communication of clients’ questions and concerns as well as understanding of the medical care plan.

Essential Functions

1. Provides emotional support and grief counseling to clients of the Veterinary Teaching Hospital regarding their animal’s health diagnosis, medical treatment, quality of life, and end of life assessment. Provides referrals to community mental health professionals as requested to clients, faculty, staff, and students.
2. Aids clients and veterinarians in ethical decision-making processes regarding veterinary care of animals through participating in direct client-veterinarian interactions, including some after-hours consultations with clients.
3. Provides group grief counseling for clients through the establishment and maintenance of a grief support group.
4. Mediates challenging communications between clients and veterinary care team.
5. Provides continuing education presentations for University faculty, staff, and professional veterinary students on topics such as human and animal bond, grief and loss, working in teams, managing difficult client and workplace interactions, association of animal abuse and domestic violence, developing resiliency, maintaining wellness, compassion fatigue, improving client access to veterinary care, and communication.
6. Maintains and develops a resource list of therapists in the area who are interested in providing animal loss and grief counseling support for clients. Provides education to referring veterinarians and community groups about the human and animal bond, grief and loss, association of animal abuse and domestic violence, compassion fatigue, and improving client access to veterinary care.
7. Presents to community groups about veterinary social work services as needed.
8. May perform other duties as assigned.

Supervisory Responsibility

May be responsible for training, assisting or assigning tasks to others. May provide input to performance reviews of other employees.

The above essential functions are representative of major duties of positions in this job classification. Specific duties and responsibilities may vary based upon departmental needs. Other duties may be assigned similar to the above consistent with the knowledge, skills and abilities required for the job. Not all of the duties may be assigned to a position.
