Auburn University Job Description

Job Title: Asst VP, Budgets & Bus Operations
Job Code: KA45
FLSA status: Exempt

Job Summary
Reporting to the VP of Business & Finance/CFO, the Asst VP of Budgets & Business Operations serves as the chief budgeting officer for the University and is responsible for the leadership and management oversight of the following business operations areas: Information Support Services, Auxiliary Enterprise Support, Campus Card Operations, and the University Bookstore. This position is responsible for leading the University Budget Office and for the formulation, development, and assessment of the University's budget and resource allocation policies, including bond borrowing affordability analysis, long-term tuition projections, and long-term pro-formas for budgeting planning. The University Budget Officer plays a crucial role, as s/he is one of only a few individuals at the University who have both the broad understanding of units and colleges across the University and the depth of insight into each. Accordingly, the University Budget Officer must be able to effectively communicate to various leaders across the University, including Trustees, the senior leadership team, Deans, and other unit leaders on all matters related to planning and budgeting and the implications of global and unit-level decisions. The oversight of the additional areas mentioned above will include guiding on priorities for projects and working with unit leaders to develop sustainable long-term financial models. This position directly manages the Manager of Budget Services, Director of ISS, Director of Auxiliary Enterprise Support, Director of Campus Card Operations, and the Director of Bookstore.

Essential Functions
1. Develops, implements, monitors, and assesses the University's annual operating budget to include developing long-range forecasts and various models and scenarios that inform budgeting planning and resource allocation decisions.
2. Provides substantial support to the President and VP for Business and Finance/CFO regarding financial and budgetary issues, including preparing and presenting high-level briefings.
3. Responsible for the administration, operation, and maintenance of all aspects of the University's campus card program, specifically the spending feature, building access, campus service access and meal program. Manages the associated banking relationship of the card.
4. Oversees the Information System Support department within Business & Finance by ensuring customer service excellence and working with the unit to find innovative ways to solve problems through the use of technology while maintaining security standards.
5. Oversees the operations of the University Bookstore to provide goods and services at a reasonable cost and providing a convenient and attractive environment for its customers. Ensures inventory, gross margins, sales, and long-term financial plans are effectively managed.
6. Oversees the auxiliary enterprise support department ensuring customer service in meeting all the auxiliary units' needs for accounting, reporting, human resource, and budgeting.
7. Anticipates and responds to budget challenges and opportunities.
8. Leads discussions about maintaining affordability for Auburn students while continuing to evolve the institution's profile and augment available resources.
