Auburn University Job Description

Job Title: Mgr, Tax Rptg & Compliance
Job Code: KA48
FLSA status: Exempt
Grade 37: $68,700 - $114,500

Job Summary
The Manager of Tax Reporting & Compliance ensures that Auburn University and Auburn University-Montgomery are in compliance with Internal Revenue Service and applicable states' Departments of Revenue rules and regulations. This includes ensuring sales, excise, unrelated business income as well as foreign persons' payment withholdings are properly withheld, reported, and remitted, if applicable. This position is also responsible for properly coding non-US citizen status as well as ensuring scholarships and awards are coded to properly report on 1098T or 1099.

Essential Functions

1. Oversees and ensures the preparation of university tax forms, including proper reporting of amounts paid to foreign persons (1042-S), information on tax exempt private activity bond issues (8038), applicable state sales, excise (720), and unrelated business income taxes (990T). Coordinates and reviews the preparation of other Internal Revenue Service and State filings and records for the department.

2. Directs and oversees departmental operations relating to non-US citizen taxes and payment including, but not limited to, determination of individuals' tax status, performance of substantial presence test/treaty analysis, coding of taxes/treaty benefits, and determination of tax on athletic and educational scholarships.

3. Analyzes, processes, and assesses taxes (when applicable) on all payments made through Procurement and Business Services for Auburn University and Auburn University-Montgomery; approves non-US vendors registries.

4. Reviews new donor agreements processed through IssueTrak. Identifies language that may be problematic for tax purposes. Provides revised language as well as advises Development on potential tax issues.

5. Oversees the review of scholarship/fellowship payment requests routing directly to Student Financial Services. Meets periodically with Scholarship Office personnel for quarterly updates. Ensures student payments are properly classified as scholarship/fellowship, award, or compensation, as applicable.

7. Tracks new and existing laws related to taxes and immigration to ensure the university's compliance. Implements new policies and procedure relating to the new laws.

8. Manages the training and communication of tax related issues, including payment to students.

9. Collaborates with other departments on tax issues.

Supervisory Responsibility
Full supervisory responsibility for other employees is a major responsibility and includes training, evaluating, and making or recommending pay, promotion or other employment decisions.
