JOB SUMMARY

The Academic Strategist provides individual and/or small group academic support for student-athletes, assists students in transitioning to the University, fosters the development of study skills, and creates a learning relationship conducive to the development of the essential skills required to become independent learners and achieve academic success.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Collects academic information (e.g., course syllabi, exam and assignment due dates, etc.) and facilitates the student's preparation and planning related to course requirements.
- Prepares, plans, and develops the semester calendar, daily and weekly goals related to calendar deadlines, ongoing teaching and modeling of active learning strategies, documentation of grades, and verification the student has all necessary academic materials (books, supplies, etc.).
- The Strategist tracks and monitors the use of accommodations for students who have education-impacting disabilities. All academic information is coordinated and shared with the Learning Specialist, Academic Counselor, and Academic Strategist Coordinator.
- Models and teaches active learning strategies and provides support for the ongoing application of such skills within the context of each class. Collaborates with Academic Tutors to develop best practices related to the student's learning style and any related learning challenges.
- Documents all activities through an online, standardized system as well as through regular communication with the Learning Specialist and Academic Counselor.
- Maintains and respects confidentiality related to the student-athlete, Student-Athlete Support Services (SASS), and Auburn University Athletics, as well as maintains and upholds professional boundaries related to their work in SASS.
- Complies with all relevant NCAA, SEC, and Auburn University policies and procedures in the performance of job duties.

The responsibilities listed above show the typical duties for jobs in this classification. Actual tasks may differ depending on the department's needs. Other similar duties may be assigned with discretion of the supervisor. Not every duty will apply to every position, and the amount of time spent on each task can change based on department needs.
