Job Summary

An apprentice plumber is an entry-level plumbing trainee enrolled in an apprenticeship program to learn the concepts and skills necessary to become a journey-level plumber over a four-year period. As a plumber apprentice, they will receive a combination of classroom education and paid on-the-job experience. Apprentice plumbers work under the observation of a journey-level plumber, building basic skills and gaining additional tasks and responsibilities as they improve. Plumbers must follow the International Plumbing Code and comply with State and local codes, regulations, and standards.

Essential Functions

1. Learn and Develop Trade Skills: As an employee-in-training, apprentices exhibit an enthusiasm to learn and an interest in the plumbing trades field. The apprentice should display an eagerness to build their knowledge and are willing to put in the effort to develop their skills. Apprentice plumbers work under the observation of a journey-level plumber, building basic skills and gaining additional tasks and responsibilities as they improve. The apprentice plumber will learn to identify, analyze, troubleshoot, and assist with repairs of equipment and how to assemble, install, test, and maintain plumbing systems. The apprentice will learn to interpret blueprints and schematics; install piping and plumbing fixtures; update internal Facilities work order systems and client accounts; communicate and collaborate with other facilities workers and crew members.
2. Attend Training Classes: Apprenticeships will require a combination of on-the-job learning, attendance, and satisfactory progress and completion of trade-related classes. Trade-related classroom training, lectures and discussions should result in satisfactory competency that leads to true craftsmanship, which is also evaluated as part of the curriculum.
3. Adhere to Health and Safety Regulations: Health and safety regulations are important, so apprentices must adhere to the business' set standards as well as comply to legal regulations. This will help ensure the safety of both the apprentice and colleagues.
4. Complete Training Assignments: Most of an apprentice's work is done during business hours, however, there is often a need to do homework out of work hours. Apprentices need to complete all homework to build their knowledge and skillset and to meet the requirements of the apprenticeship.
5. Follow Company Processes: Apprentices need to follow all rules established by their employer. The apprentice is responsible for strictly adhering to all processes and procedures.

Supervisory Responsibility

May be responsible for training, assisting or assigning tasks to others. May provide input to performance reviews of other employees.

The above essential functions are representative of major duties of positions in this job classification. Specific duties and responsibilities may vary based upon departmental needs. Other duties may be assigned similar to the above consistent with the knowledge, skills and abilities required for the job. Not all of the duties may be assigned to a position.
