JOB SUMMARY

Plans, organizes, and implements fund-raising activities for one or more organization units within Auburn University.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Identifies potential prospects for cultivations through research, initial contact ratings, peer reviews and other relevant resources.
- Solicits gifts and/or club memberships through person-to-person visits, group presentations, and/or phone contacts.
- Provides stewardship to include acknowledging and showing gratitude for donating/joining clubs either by letter, phone call, and/or participating in/attending events and function for donors.
- Updates and informs supervisors and other staff of goal status, new plans and project proposals, and ensures that a cooperative team effort is made to meet goals and objectives.
- Prepares budget with input provided by Director, reviews and approves financial records, vouchers and acquisitions.
- Develops reports, records, and programs and analyzes information necessary to plan and complete projects and assignments.
- May develop campaigns and/or presentation proposals related to funding priorities in order to keep top prospects informed, interested, involved and to meet development goals and objectives.
- The nature of this role is highly externally focused, requiring frequent travel and meetings on and off campus during regular and non-traditional business hours, and is therefore expected to operate with high-levels of autonomy.
- May produce or assists in producing marketing materials to support development efforts.

The responsibilities listed above show the typical duties for jobs in this classification. Actual tasks may differ depending on the department's needs. Other similar duties may be assigned with discretion of the supervisor. Not every duty will apply to every position, and the amount of time spent on each task can change based on department needs.
