JOB FAMILY AND FUNCTION

Job Family:	University Advancement
Job Function:	Donor Relations

JOB SUMMARY

Provides strategic direction, oversight and framework for best practices in donor relations, demonstrates high proficiency in tactical execution and coordination to ensure the University demonstrates to its donors due accountability, gratitude, recognition, and responsiveness.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Develops new, innovative, and university-focused programs that promote donor engagement, recognition, and retention of top prospects and donors and speaks to the University mission; working in conjunction with directors of development to facilitate a first-in-class donor engagement and recognition experience.
- Conceptualizes, plans, implements, coordinates, and monitors an integrated and comprehensive donor relations and stewardship program that appropriately and consistently promotes interaction and connection with and recognition of donors at all levels. This includes donor society membership, induction, and stewardship events.
- Collaborates with the Financial Stewardship Group, the Development Communications and Marketing team, and campus partners to report on the use of gifts, communicate gift impact through scholarship reporting and celebrate contributions and/or giving milestones.
- Develops criteria for measuring stewardship and retention plan success, tracks results with established goals, and advises Development leadership towards on-going progress.
- Responsible for the review and control of all gift acknowledgements, naming agreements, and endowment reports.
- Responsible for establishing, documenting, and implementing the process and workflow for historical archiving and retrieving of donor relations including both paper/hard copy collateral and digital records. This includes, but is not limited to, proposals, gift and pledge documentation, acknowledgements, press releases, maintaining recipients lists for holders of chairs/professorships, endowed/annual named scholarship students, named facilities, spaces, and programs.
- Serves as an expert in principal gift stewardship-related matters for our campus partners through leadership and representation in Donor Relations and Stewardship meetings.
- Responsible for oversight of donor signage, recognition and walls across campus and maintains current and historical records.
- Leads and contributes to regular brainstorming on innovative, unique and personalized stewardship, communications, and engagement opportunities.
- The nature of this role is highly externally focused, requiring frequent travel and meetings on and off campus during regular and non-traditional business hours, and is therefore expected to operate with high-levels of autonomy.
