JOB SUMMARY

The Assistant Director of Campaign and Principal Gift Operations plays a key role in the daily execution and long-term planning of Auburn's comprehensive fundraising campaign, with a strong emphasis on principal gift operations and stakeholder engagement. The Assistant Director works closely with the Senior Director of the Campaign and collaborates across Advancement to ensure campaign success in alignment with Auburn's strategic plan.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Supports the Senior Director with the planning and implementation of Auburn's comprehensive fundraising campaign, ensuring alignment with institutional priorities and campaign timelines.
- Assists with the development and execution of principal gift strategies focused on the identification, cultivation, solicitation, and stewardship of high-level donors.
- Contributes to long-term campaign planning, including campaign phases, strategic benchmarks, and success measures.
- Directs and manages campaign events by recommending scope, nature, location, and timing; coordinates logistics and communication across stakeholders.
- Supports the Senior Director with campaign reporting efforts by compiling information related to progress, standards, and financial benchmarks.
- Oversees daily operations of the campaign office, maintaining strong alignment with goals and timelines.
- Develops benchmark criteria to assess the efficiency and effectiveness of fundraising initiatives, ensuring continual improvement.
- Conducts and analyzes market research to understand donor attitudes, perceptions, and behaviors, informing strategy and messaging.
- Contributes to the creation of individualized engagement and solicitation strategies for key principal gift donors, ensuring seamless coordination across teams and leadership.
- Partners with internal stakeholders, including senior administration, deans, faculty, frontline fundraisers, and volunteers to advance philanthropic goals and build a strong culture of giving. Coordinate with Advancement Events, vendors, consultants, and campaign counsel to plan and execute impactful campaign-related events and donor engagements.
