

Auburn University Outreach is looking for

Outreach Ambassadors

Outreach Ambassadors are students who are dedicated to assisting Auburn University Outreach in developing, promoting, and supporting university programs that serve the broader community.

Qualifications

- Demonstrated commitment to service and outreach
- Excellent interpersonal communication and customer service skills
- Must be reliable, organized, and hardworking
- Ability to work independently and with others
- Proficient in Microsoft Office Suite
- Must remain in good academic standing

Benefits

- Acquire hands-on experience in your academic field
- Opportunities to network with peers, faculty, staff, community members and potential employers
- Develop leadership, public speaking, and communication skills
- Acquire community service hours
- Access to a dedicated meeting and study space

Responsibilities

- Develop and facilitate workshops and programs
- Assist with marketing and advertising
- Engage in community service initiatives
- Represent Auburn University and University Outreach
- Attend a minimum of four events per semester
- Complete required training

Come join us in making a difference!

Application Deadline: Friday, November 19, 2021

Mandatory Training: January 2022 Date: TBA

If you are interested in this great leadership opportunity, please email Dr. Venus Hewing at vrh0003@auburn.edu