11:20-12:40 – Information Sharing

- 18th Annual Engagement Scholarship Consortium Conference update
 - Update on Proposals numbers received and a thank you for the people that will serve as panelists
 - Update on Conference Events
 - University of Kentucky looking at joining ESC
 - Looking at Registration on April 3
 - Encourage as people to attend as possible
 - Questions

- Paul Jungernickel - Colleagues interested in presenting about the Opioid Crisis - Can there be more than 1 presenter for a paper? Yes – no stipulation on limits of how many people can present.
 - If they weren't selected as a paper, willing to do a poster but no place to select a secondary preference? Applicants would be contacted after the paper selections have been made to find out secondary selections.
 - Will be another offer later on
 - First time for roundtable presentations at the ESC conference. How would that work? You will sit at a table with 1 or few presenters and will go to that table if you are interested in that topic? Time is 1.5 hours
 - What is the level of interest in stem outreach? Is it something that would be an interest? Absolutely. Will probably have a lot of STEM Engagement/Stem related presentation
- Educational and Cultural Delegations update
 - Ghana – Summer 2017
 - Cuba – August 6-12
 - Cuba – November 2-6

 - Friday, May 5
 - Ballroom B, AUHCC
 - Presentation of all things Auburn and Cuba
 - Use this event to leverage a statewide conference of all things statewide and Cuba
 - If you know of constituents are groups that might want to attend
 - Will it just be from an Outreach Standpoint? It would behoove us to have it broader and include other groups from around campus that are going to Cuba. Be inclusive of all groups but have some focus on who is presenting so that there is a wide variety of information presented of everything Auburn related going on in Cuba
