

Alabama Certified Appraiser Exam
(Personal Property)

Applications Must Be Received at GEDI by January 28, 2022

The following information will aid the candidate for the Alabama Certified Personal Property Appraiser designation in applying for candidacy and in preparing to take the ACAP comprehensive examination.

Design of Exam:

The examination is comprehensive. It is designed to test for knowledge and understanding of both general and Alabama appraisal principles, procedures, and application of appraisal skills required of a professional personal property appraiser. The examination consists of two parts. The first is composed of 50 multiple choice questions, each worth 2 points, drawn from text material in all the above-named education requirement courses. These questions deal with general appraisal theory and principles and specific Alabama provisions. Part II of the examination consists of 40 problems, based primarily on, but not limited to, the three approaches to value and problems using Alabama Department of Revenue valuation guidelines. These problems are worth 5 points each.

Each of the two parts of the personal property exam must be passed with a 70% or higher. Part I has a total of 100 points possible, with a minimum of 70 points for passing. Part II has a total of 210 points, with a minimum of 145 points for passing. Upon successful completion of this examination and completion of the experience requirements, the Personal Property designation will be conferred by the Department of Revenue.

Length of Exam:

The exam is designed to take between four and six hours. Six hours is the maximum time allowed to take the exam.

Basic Knowledge:

Alabama Personal Property Appraisal Manual; Alabama Personal Property Audits; IAAO 500 Assessment of Personal Property; and IAAO 101 Fundamentals of Real Property Appraisal are the common body of knowledge shared by each candidate. The exam has been developed around these courses.

Dates and Location of Exam:

The ACA Exam will be given on March 11, 2022.

Examination and Certification Fee:

A non-refundable fee of $165.00 should be submitted by the applicant at the time of applying for Admission to Candidacy. The fee includes both examination and processing costs. Please make checks payable to AUBURN UNIVERSITY.

Other (Deadline):

If the applicant is registered for a course to be held after the application deadline, the January 28, 2022 deadline still applies. Indicate the course and the date it is being held on the application. These applications will be processed contingent upon successful completion of the course.
