

Spring 2025 Course Descriptions

Abigail and John Adams: Their Letters

Instructors: Joyce Rothschild & Mary Ann Rygiel

Wednesdays | 9:00 am - 10:30 am | Pebble Hill

The correspondence between Abigail and John Adams provides an intimate look into their personal and political partnership during one of the most defining periods in American history. Spanning decades, their letters offer insights into the Revolutionary War, the formation of the U.S. government, and evolving social issues. This course explores their courtship and marriage, the challenges of separation during the Revolution, their perspectives on governance, Abigail's advocacy for women's rights, and their opposition to slavery. Participants will engage in discussions on how these letters shaped and reflected the values of early America.

Required Course Materials: My Dearest Friend: Letters of Abigail and John Adams (2007), edited with an introduction by Joseph Ellis. ISBN: 978-0-674-05705-0.

Joyce Rothschild has a doctorate in English Literature. She taught for 28 years in the English Department at Auburn University.

Mary Ann Rygiel, also holding a doctorate in English Literature, has over 31 years of teaching experience.

Advanced Gel Pad Printing

Instructor: Kim Murdock

Wednesdays | 2:30 pm - 4:30 pm | Sunny Slope Annex

Required Fee: $25 (to be paid at the time of registration)

Expand your gel pad printing skills in this Advanced Gel Pad Printing course, designed for students who have completed Gel Pad Printing for the Absolute Beginner or a similar introductory class. This hands-on, weekly workshop will introduce advanced techniques to create dynamic, multi-layered prints and finished products using gel printing methods. Students will explore image transfers, custom stencils, masks, and complex layered compositions to create four completed pieces. The course will also include short instructional videos for additional techniques and inspiration.

Required Course Materials (Provided by the Student)

- 8" x 10" Gel Pad
- 4" Rubber Brayer
- Golden Fluid Acrylic Paint Set
- Yasutomo Japanese Sketch Paper (9" x 12")

Additional Materials (Provided by the Instructor)

- Additional paints, papers, and supplies
- Stencils
- Baby wipes

Kim Murdock previously taught Gel Pad Printing for the Absolute Beginner in Fall 2024 and brings her expertise to this advanced-level course.

The Art of Mending

Instructor: Sheri Schumacher

Wednesdays | 9:00 AM - 10:30 AM | Sunny Slope Annex

This course explores the practical and creative aspects of mending clothing, drawing inspiration from the Japanese philosophy of Wabi-Sabi and the Boro tradition. Participants will engage in hands-on exercises, learn ancient techniques, and gain insights from readings and visual presentations. Emphasizing the value of imperfections and the celebration of aging, the course encourages a thoughtful approach to clothing. By extending the life of garments through mindful repair, participants contribute to a more intentional relationship with their clothes and the world around them.

Required Book: The Art of Repair by Molly Martin (ISBN: 978-1-78072-442-3)

Materials to Bring:

- A natural fiber dress shirt (cotton or linen), preferably discarded, damaged, or thrifted
- Sashiko needle
- Sashiko thread (thin)
- Straight pins
- Scissors

Sheri Schumacher is a designer with experience teaching sustainable design and adaptive reuse in architecture. She creates hand-stitched, pieced, and mended wall textiles using repurposed clothing.

Birding Basics

Instructor: Bill Deutsch

Mondays | 8:30 am - 10:00 am | Meets at Sunny Slope Annex Porch

Discover the joy of birdwatching in this beginner-friendly, field-oriented course! Designed for those new to birding, this class will introduce you to the natural history of birds, essential identification techniques (by sight and sound), useful birding aids, and ways to attract birds to your home. While some time will be spent at Sunny Slope for discussion, most sessions will involve hands-on birding at local parks in the Auburn area. Optional weekend field trips will be available for those eager to deepen their experience. By the end of this course, participants will confidently identify at least 20 bird species by both sight and sound. Please enroll in only one offering of this course, as they will be nearly identical.

Required materials:

Binoculars (loaners available) and comfortable walking shoes. A smartphone with the Merlin App from the Cornell Lab of Ornithology is recommended.

Bill Deutsch is retired from the AU School of Fisheries, Aquaculture and Aquatic Sciences. Avocational birder. Previous instructor for OLLI Birding Basics courses.

Birding Basics

Instructor: Hal Smith

Tuesdays | 9:00 am - 10:30 am | Meets at Sunny Slope Annex Porch

Join this engaging, beginner-friendly course to explore the fascinating world of birdwatching! Designed for those new to birding, this field-oriented class will cover bird identification by sight and sound, essential birding tools, and ways to attract birds to your home. While some time will be spent at Sunny Slope discussing birding techniques and local birding hotspots, most sessions will involve hands-on birding at Auburn's parks and natural areas. Optional weekend field trips will be available for those interested in expanding their experience.

Required materials:

Binoculars (loaners available) and comfortable walking shoes. A smartphone with the Merlin App from the Cornell Lab of Ornithology is recommended.

Hal Smith owns Wild Birds Unlimited in Auburn and actively contributes to eBird.org and the Alabama Ornithological Society.

Careful Pencil Drawing

Instructor: Scott Melville

Tuesdays | 2:00 pm - 3:30 pm | Sunny Slope Annex

Unlock the art of creating stunning pencil drawings in this detailed and methodical class. Students will explore what makes for compelling compositions and learn how to size, outline, and develop drawings with precision. Each session focuses on achieving strong contrasts, sharp and soft edges, and the subtleties of "lost edges." Assignments will be given for each class, with optional opportunities to share completed work during the next session.

Required Course Materials (Provided by the Student)

- Basic set of drawing pencils (optional; No. 2 Ticonderoga pencils recommended)
- Paper (minimum 80# weight; 140# preferred)
- Ruler
- Good soft eraser

Scott Melville has been painting and drawing for over 40 years. For the past 10 years, he has spent two to three hours nearly every day working on a painting or pencil drawing.

Chinese Brush Painting

Instructor: Dong Shang

Mondays | 11:00 am - 12:30 pm | Sunny Slope Kitchen

Experience a hands-on introduction to Chinese brush painting and calligraphy, focusing on capturing nature's essence through suggestion and simplicity. Traditional subjects like flowers, animals, and landscapes will be explored, reflecting the harmony of Chinese culture. Participants will learn fundamental brush strokes, composition, and spontaneous painting techniques.

Materials Fee: $120, payable at registration - unless you have previously purchased class supplies

Materials: Course materials will be provided by the instructor during the first meeting.

Dong Shang, a native of China with a degree in Art, is an art designer. She immigrated to the United States and has since built a successful career as a freelance artist and art teacher.

The History of Freedom

Instructors: Herb Shivers & Jim Barber, Instructors

Mondays | 9:00 am - 10:30 am | Sunny Slope Annex & Zoom

This course delves into the profound concept of freedom—a driving force of Western civilization and possibly the most influential idea in human history. But what exactly is freedom? Historian and classical scholar J. Rufus Fears will guide us through its dramatic story, from ancient Greece to the present day. We will explore what freedom meant to figures like Abraham Lincoln, Robert E. Lee, Franklin Roosevelt, Winston Churchill, and Martin Luther King, and reflect on what it means to us today. Join us as we embark on this thought-provoking journey into the meaning of human freedom.

We are proud and honored to continue this series on behalf of and in memory of "The Colonel - Tom McCormick." While we won't attempt to fill Tom's boots or emulate his unique teaching style, charm, and wit, his spirit will be with us throughout.

To complete the Spring 2025 semester, several sessions from James Burke's acclaimed "Connections" series will also be presented, offering fascinating insights into the interconnectedness of historical events and ideas.

Charles H. "Herb" Shivers, PhD has been an AU OLLI member since 2012. He is a retired UAB Professor who worked with NASA and the Senior Executive Service. In addition, he has worked with the Tennessee Valley Authority, the US Army, and the National Guard. Herb is a retired Licensed Professional Engineer in Alabama and holds degrees from Auburn University, Texas A&M University, and The University of Alabama in Huntsville.

Jim Barber holds a BCE degree from Auburn University with additional studies at Villanova University, University of Houston, and Sacramento State. He has 54 years of experience in construction engineering design, project management, and international shipping/transportation and trade. Science and history are at both ends of his happiness rainbow.

History of Western Art, Part 2

Instructor: Anne Leader

Mondays | 11:00 am - 12:30 pm | Sunny Slope Annex

This course introduces the historical and intellectual content of Western art, examining various media, including painting, sculpture, and architecture. Topics include history, style, meaning, and social context, with discussions guided by participant interest. Each term builds on previous sessions, but no prior experience is required, and new participants are always welcome. Please note: The schedule may adjust based on previous course coverage and Dr. Leader's research travel.

Anne Leader, Ph.D., has taught Introduction to Art History at the University of New Hampshire, Kean University, The City College of New York, SCAD-Atlanta, and OLLI.

The Instruments of Folk and Roots Music

Instructor: Mike Reinke

Tuesdays | 2:30 pm - 4:00 pm | Zoom Only

Discover the origins and evolution of American folk and roots music, with a focus on African-American folk traditions and its commercial separation from Anglo-American folk music. This class also highlights the folk music of Alabama, the structure and composition of traditional folk, roots, and blues music, and the impact of various musicians on contemporary culture. For more information, please email mikereinke68@gmail.com.

Mike Reinke is a retired Auburn University faculty member who taught in the School of Pharmacy for 22 years and received several teaching awards. He has been teaching in the OLLI at AU program since 2016.

Intermediate Hikes

Staying Active - Day Hiking

Instructor: Harold Bruner

Thursdays | 8:30 am - 4:00 pm | Meet at Sunny Slope by 8:45 am unless otherwise directed.

This class is designed for more advanced hikers and may involve challenging terrain. To join, you should have a moderate fitness level and prior hiking experience at these distances. Hike locations will alternate between Chewacla State Park and the other sites we typically visit. The Chewacla hikes will begin at 8:30. For the out-of-town hikes, we will carpool and leave Sunny Slope at 8:30. The Chewacla hikes will be up to 10 miles with options to exit after 3-4 miles. The out-of-town hikes are often in the 5-10-mile range. Participants typically carpool from Sunny Slope to our out-of-town destinations. At the end of the term, you will be assessed $5 for each time you ride with the carpool. The money will be distributed among the drivers to offset their expenses.

Required: Demonstration of your hiking proficiency before the first class.

Two hiking poles. A small day pack is suggested.

Harold Bruner has hiked extensively in the U.S. and Canada and, more recently, in northern England. He has led hikes for OLLI for the last six years. As a forestry graduate of Purdue, he worked in the forests of the Midwest for many years. Since moving to Auburn in 2014, he has enjoyed the biodiversity and many hiking opportunities in Alabama.

The Past is a Foreign Country: History in Objects

Instructors: Elijah Gaddis & Student Lecturers

Thursdays | 2:30 pm - 4:00 pm | Sunny Slope Annex

This course is the second iteration of a graduate-student-taught history class. Each week, a different instructor will lead a lecture focused on a single object selected from the collection of the Jule Collins Smith Museum of Fine Arts. These objects will serve as a gateway to exploring the social, political, and cultural history of the period in which they were created. Participants can expect fresh perspectives and exciting insights drawn from original research. By examining historical artifacts, this course will provide a unique approach to understanding the past through tangible connections to history.

Walk This Way

Instructor: Bob Banks

Thursdays | 8:30 am - 9:30 am | Meet at Auburn Public Library

Join this engaging weekly program designed to help participants develop a consistent walking exercise routine. Each Thursday, attendees will meet at the Auburn Public Library to learn about the numerous benefits of walking and enjoy local walks together. This course welcomes both novice and veteran walkers, providing a supportive and informative environment for all.

Bob Banks is an avid runner. He is a retired ALFA insurance professional.

Wheel-Thrown Pottery

Instructor: Gary Wagoner

Mondays | 9:00 am - 11:00 am | Jan Dempsey Arts Center

Course fee: $110 payable to OLLI (covers the costs of clay, glazes, firing, use of tools, and venue rental)

Open to beginners and experienced potters, this class will cover the basics of throwing on the potter's wheel. Students will learn essential skills such as centering, opening, pulling walls, and forming. As the course progresses, participants will create various shapes, including cups, bowls, vases, and pitchers. Additionally, there will be opportunities to work with glazes and other forms of surface decoration. Class participants can elect to use the studio on another day for practice—more details will be provided.

Gary Wagoner holds an MFA in Ceramic Art from SUNY College of Ceramics at Alfred University. He developed the Ceramics curriculum at Auburn University and taught all levels of pottery and clay sculpture there for 35 years.

Writing Our Lives

Instructor: Terry Ley

Mondays | 11:00 am - 12:30 pm | Pebble Hill

Our lives are like patchwork quilts, writes Richard L. Morgan in Saving Our Stories: A Legacy We Leave, and as we age, we detect the patterns we have woven and seek to understand them. Explore your life's patterns and the stories they prompt. Revisit memories, reflect on them, write about them, and share your stories with an empathetic audience of peers.

Terry Ley taught high school English in Iowa before coming to Auburn University, where he was a professor of English education. He has taught Writing Our Lives for OLLI for seventeen years.

Your Legacy: The Who, What, When, Where, and Why of Your Life's Journey

Instructor: Leisa Askew

Tuesdays | 11:00 am - 12:30 pm | Sunny Slope Annex

Everyone has a life story, and this course provides guidance on both sharing and documenting personal life experiences. Participants will explore the significance of preserving family history, identifying key details that should be recorded for future generations. While certain moments may seem unimportant now, they can become invaluable as families grow and change. Through discussions and practical exercises, this course will help ensure that personal legacies are not lost or forgotten. Participants will learn what information to document, why it matters, and how to create a lasting record of their family's history.

Leisa Askew is a licensed social worker with over 25 years of experience in aging services. She spent more than two decades at the Lee-Russell Council of Governments Area Agency on Aging, working with Assisted Living, Long-Term Care, and Independent Living communities.

Special Interest Groups (SIG)

Any OLLI member, general or academic, may register for a SIG.

Exploring Artistic Expressions: An Open Studio (SIG)

Facilitator: John Willer

Thursdays | 11:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. | Sunny Slope Annex

Discover and experiment with different artistic mediums, including acrylic paint, oil paint, pencils, and pastels. Engage in hands-on activities and guided discussions to gain insight into various techniques. Whether you're a beginner or a seasoned artist, you'll have the chance to find your unique artistic style while being part of a supportive community. Participants are welcome to use any medium they prefer but must bring their own supplies. John Willer will be available to provide assistance and guidance as needed.

Healing the Heart of Democracy - Let's Talk (SIG)

Facilitator: Janet Deutsch

Tuesdays | 12:45 pm - 2:15 pm | Sunny Slope Main Classroom

This non-sectarian Special Interest Group invites participants to explore some of Parker Palmer's Healing the Heart of Democracy (not necessary to purchase) and other thoughtful people to engage in meaningful discussions about bridging divides in our country. Through guided conversations, we hope to foster true dialogue, shared understanding, and a sense of community.

Looking At Photography with a Critical Eye (SIG)

Facilitator: Curtis Shannon

Thursdays | 11:00 am - 12:30 pm | Sunny Slope Conference Room

If you have ever wondered why contemporary photography is interesting and how to engage with it, this Special Interest Group (SIG) is for you. Join us as we explore the power of observation, the nature of photographs, developing a critical eye, mapping photographs, and picturing the South.

The Kindness Connection (SIG)

Facilitator: Johnnie Dowdell

Wednesdays | 9:00 am - 10:30 am | Sunny Slope Conference Room

This Special Interest Group (SIG) fosters meaningful connections through acts of kindness. Participants will explore the power of compassion, gratitude, and community engagement while sharing experiences and ideas that inspire positive change. Through discussions and collaborative activities, members will cultivate a supportive environment where kindness becomes a daily practice. Open to all who believe in the impact of small gestures, this group provides a space to reflect, connect, and make a difference—one act of kindness at a time.

Meditation (SIG)

Facilitator: Leslie Beard

Mondays | 5:00 pm - 6:15 pm | Sunny Slope Annex

The OLLI Meditation SIG meets weekly to meditate and build a supportive community for meditators of all levels and disciplines.

(Play) Mahjongg (SIG)

Facilitator: Kim Scarborough

Wednesdays | 1:30 pm - 3:30 pm | Sunny Slope Kitchen & Main Classroom

You must have had some previous experience playing. Please note that there won't be any formal instructors available, as this is not a course for learning the game. It's an opportunity to meet and play with other game enthusiasts. OLLI provides 12 cards and one set, but please bring your own cards and game sets if you have them.

Secular Buddhist Study Group (SIG)

Facilitators: Leslie Beard & Gary Wagoner

Mondays | 3:45 - 4:45 pm | Sunny Slope Annex

This study group provides an opportunity, through shared readings and discussion, to explore Buddhist teachings and practices in a secular and contemporary context. It will focus on the precepts of Buddhism as a practical and ethical philosophy.
